MENU OPTION ACTIVITIES

MENU OPTION ACTIVITIES

Stations WBAL-TV, WBAL(AM), and WIYY(FM) have engaged in the following outreach activities during the period covered by this Report:

Activity Classification*	Type of Activity	Brief Description
5	Internship Program	We have an internship program for the fall semester, the spring semester, and the summer. We accept 15-20 college students majoring in communications, in each session. Students are assigned to news, production, sports, videography, sales and marketing, meteorology, promotion, and public affairs. The students spend an average of 20 hours a week and earn three college credits for completing this program.
12	Job Banks	Our open positions and internships are listed in job banks at the Baltimore Urban League, the NAACP, The Maryland State Department of Employment and Training, and the Mayor's Office of Employment Development.
12	Minority Listing	Our openings are listed with the National Association of Black Journalists, the Asian American Journalists Association, The Governor's Office of Minority Affairs, The National Association of Hispanic Journalists, The Emma J. Bowen Foundation for Minority Interest in Media, the Association of Women in Radio & Television, and Jewish Vocational Services.
7	Scholarship Fund	We have established the Clifton R. Cox Scholarship Fund as a salute to an employee who retired due to illness after more than 40 years of service. This scholarship is administered by the Advertising Club of Baltimore and is awarded each year to a student interested in a career in television production.

10	Educational Institutions	We are one of 12 host stations for the United States Telecommunications Training Institute (USTTI) which brings foreign television professionals to the United States to learn about the rapidly changing industry. They spend time experiencing each department in the station and go back to their stations to train and prepare the staff there. We hosted two visitors in June of 2007, a News Editor from Sri Lanka, and a managing editor from Oslo, Norway. Scott Wykoff, News Anchor/Reporter addressed the Broadcast Newswriting and Reporting Class at George Washington University School of Media and Public Affairs on March 10, 2008. Mr. Wykoff delivered a multimedia presentation regarding careers as a news reporter. Mark Miller, News Director for WBAL-AM addressed the Media Criticism Class at Towson University on November 8, 2007, and again on April 2, 2008, regarding the broadcasting industry and job opportunities on air, off air, and on line, as well as internship opportunities. Mark Miller, News Director for WBAL-AM addressed the Broadcasting Class at Towson University on November 29, 2007, and again on April 3, 2008, regarding the broadcasting industry and job opportunities on air, off air, and on line, as well as internship opportunities.
